3. Modifications at the WELS 2019

For example:

- The entire organization (Event Management) has been professionalized to enable improved and technically simplified processes for you.

- The catering has been significantly improved so that you have no waiting time for lunch on Thursday and are offered more options to choose from.
- The Pre-Conference and the Post-Conference as well as the entertainment program with the cultural activities are rich and of high quality.
- There are various social Come-Togethers.

4. Host, Patronage and Contact

The World Education Leadership Symposium WELS is hosted by Prof. Dr. Stephan Huber of the Institute for the Management and Economics of Education (IBB) of the University of Teacher Education Zug in cooperation with VSLCH, LCH, EDK and ASD as well as various universities and partners. Patronage: State Secretariat for Education, Research and Innovation SBFI. Read more

For the last 12 years the Symposium has been the largest international congress in Europe on education leadership. 800 experts working in different fields of practice and research from around 50 countries worldwide discuss challenges and solutions for education and schools for tomorrow. In 2017, 1100 experts from 76 countries around the world discussed what tomorrow's schools should be like in 100 speeches, paper presentations, and workshops with around 200 speakers. The conference languages are English, French and German; simultaneous translation is provided for the entire plenary program. The parallel program is either in English or German. There will be sessions in French and Spanish, too.
